

Schneider Electric is the world-wide specialist in the energy management and offers general innovative solutions to form energy more certainly, more reliably, more efficient and more productively. With efficient products, solutions and a competent service for the energy supply and energy distribution we are a competent partner for our customers.

In our location Schneider Electric Austria Power Drives Vienna, we strengthen our team and search for one

Commissioning and Troubleshooting Engineer for Medium Voltage Frequency Inverters (f/m)

Place of work and your responsibilities:

- Commissioning of Medium Voltage Frequency Inverters world wide
- Troubleshooting of Medium Voltage Frequency Inverters world wide
- Training activities predominantly in English language

Your qualification:

- Fundamental education in Electrical Engineering (HTL, FH, University)
- PLC-Programming, knowledge in the industrial communication (e.g. Ethernet/Profibus)
- Frequency inverter basic knowledge desirable
- Very good English knowledge
- Good MS office knowledge
- Very good communication skills and team spirit
- Intercultural and social competence
- Readiness for frequent international business trips

Our offer:

- Internal training phase
(duration approx. 1-2 years depending of experience and education)
- Highly autonomous working and engineering
- A young, dynamic and cooperative team
- Adequate income
- Technical and individual possibilities of development
- Attractive general conditions in an international group

Income:

Starting with 2.300€ (depending on experiences), overtime and business trip will be paid extra.

We are glad about your application papers!

Schneider Electric Austria Ges.m.b. H. attn. Mr. Maria Resch.

Biròstrasse 11 A-1239 Vienna E-mail: maria.resch@schneider-electric.com.